Secretly loving him, she watches silently and shedding tears of heartbreak as he falls in love and marries another girl. Then when her father, Wade, is killed in a riding accident months after she began college, her life is turned upside down. Her mother, Mary, decides to move back to the Midwest, leaving the ranch and the life Rebecca has known behind, including the one man she has loved since high school. XXXXX Now with the unexpected death of her mother, Rebecca learns that their successful interior design company has been sold out from under her. What is she to do now To her surprise she learns that she still owns the Lazy J Ranch, something she believed had been sold years before. No longer employed, Rebecca, along with her friend and one-time secretary, Sally, travel back to New Mexico. When she had left thirty years ago, Will Jamerson had been the ranch foreman. Would he still be there Was he still married The fates had separated them before, and now circumstances threaten to tear them apart again, this time forever. This item ships from multiple locations.
