

Leadership in Action - Principles Forged in the Crucible of Military Service Can Lead Corporate America Back to the Top

By Donna M. McAleer

Fortis Publishing. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 424 pages. In an era where the American public is saturated with women selling sexuality, this book highlights those who, blessed with strong character traits, use them to make a positive contribution to society. Leadership is a matter of character; leadership is matter of how to be, not how to do it. Leadership is something that is instilled in you--and great leaders in turn instill the ability in others. The women in Porcelain on Steel exemplify this for all ages and wisdom for all time. Their qualities and strength of character would lead to success in any era but most importantly, their stories are especially relevant now, in todays times. Porcelain on Steel is a book for your daughter, your sister, your best friend, and most of all, yourself. The women in Porcelain on Steel are genuine role models. Americas youth, whether male or female, as well as parents in search of stories of inspiration, courage, loyalty, public service and leadership that set a positive direction for our young people, should read this book. For more than 200 years, West Point has produced officers and leaders who have served our Nation in and...
