Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Paxton s Magazine of Botany: And Register of Flowering Plants In dismissing the present volume from the press, we tender our warmest thanks to our numerous Subscribers who have for the last sixteen years given to our Magazine a most unprecedented encouragement. In the commencement of 1849 we entered on a wider field than we had previously occupied, including in our work Notices and Cultivation of every thing connected with Gardening. Although the plan did not admit of so many plates being given monthly, yet, perhaps, an equal number of subjects have been figured with any former year, and the amount of letter-press has been much greater; yet the alteration altogether has not been so satisfactory, either to our subscribers or ourselves, as could have been wished, although there has been on diminution of subscribers. Notwithstanding the undiminished support given, we deem it the best to bring the work to a final close, as it has become, for some years past, to new subscribers, a rather unwieldy and expensive publication, we therefore beg our Headers to consider this sixteenth volume as the termination of the Magazine of Botany, which must now be considered - completed. Although our present Magazine terminates with this volume, our labours will still continue. Au entirely New Work, of a different size, with better and more highly finished plates, trill be its successor, to be called Paxton s Flower Garden; and in the conducting of which we shall have the joint assistance of Dr. Lindley, whose extensive knowledge of Botany has placed him on an eminence enjoyed by few. Although a comparison with the Magazine of Botany can scarcely be a...
