General Outline of the Mine Country. The district of country which is characterized by affording lead ore, and formerly known as the lead mines of Louisiana, comprises the present counties of Washington, St. Genevieve, Jefferson, and Madison: Missouri Territory. It extends in length from the head waters of the St. Francis, in a northwest direction, to the Merrimack, a distance of 70 miles; and in breadth from the Mississippi in a southwest direction to the Fourche a Courtois, a distance of about 45 miles, and covering an area of 3150 square miles. This tract is generally characterized by yielding lead ores, and is the seat of such mines as now are, or have formerly been wrought. It is not on every particular section of it that the existence of lead is to be traced, nor is the mineral character of the soil,...
