This is true in many ways with reference to the development and advancement of West Virginia. In 1876 there was distributed at the Centennial Exhibition at Philadelphia a book entitled The Resources of West Virginia, which first called the attention of the world to our vast material wealth, and to the other great possibilities within our borders. Then in 1893 a similar work called The Mountain State was prepared for the World's Fair at Chicago. At that time also the Columbian History of Education in West Virginia was issued, being the first printed record relating to our educational progress. This book was prepared by State Superintendent B. S. Morgan and Mr. J. F. Cork, and was an excellent presentation of what had been accomplished up to that time. It is proper to say here that in 1889 Prof. A. R. Whitehill, of the West Virginia University,...
