

B-24 in China: General Chennault's Secret Weapon in WWII

By A. B. Feuer, Anna C. Chennault, William D. Hopson

Stackpole Books. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, B-24 in China: General Chennault's Secret Weapon in WWII, A. B. Feuer, Anna C. Chennault, William D. Hopson, This book records the World War II experiences of Captain Elmer E Haynes, who flew low-altitude night radar strikes against Japanese shipping in the South China Sea and daylight raids against various enemy land-based installations in eastern and central China. Haynes flew secretly developed B-24 Liberator bombers that were equipped with radar that had been integrated with the Norden Bombsight for night missions. These B-24s operated with the 14th Air Force - General Chennault's Flying Tigers. The bombing attacks were so accurate and successful that, in a little over a year, Haynes and his fellow pilots sank approximately a million tons of Japanese shipping.
